

AHA!

Archivists of the Houston Area

SPECIAL COLLECTIONS UNIVERSITY OF HOUSTON LIBRARIES

Physical Location:

2nd Floor, M.D. Anderson Library, University of Houston

Mailing Address (if different from above):

114 University Libraries, University of Houston, Houston, TX 77204-2000

Phone:

713-743-9750

Fax:

713-743-9893

Email:

speccol@lib.uh.edu

Website:

<http://info.lib.uh.edu/sca/index.html>

STAFF

Name:	Position:	Phone / Email:
Pat Bozeman	Department Head	713-743-9751 / LPBozeman@uh.edu
Dick Dickerson	University Archivist	713-743-5893 / dickd@uh.edu
Julie Grob	Digital Projects & Instruction Librarian	713-743-9744
[Open]	Archivist for History Collections	Call or e-mail Dick Dickerson

ACCESS

Hours: 9-5 Monday-Friday. 12-4 on Saturdays during Fall and Spring semesters.

Research By Appt. Only: Not applicable

Finding Aids:

Paper  Database  Other _____ Web-based:  EAD  HTML

Comments on Access:

For in-depth research needs it's always best to call ahead, which can save you time, as advanced preparation on our part may facilitate your research.

COLLECTIONS POLICY / MISSION STATEMENT

To preserve, safeguard, organize, describe and make accessible materials for current and future generations.

GENERAL OVERVIEW OF COLLECTIONS

Strengths: Paper collections: Houston performing arts, Texas/Houston literature, local women's organizations (and related individuals), Texas/Houston history (including the University of Houston). Book collections: American/British literature, Texas/Houston history, history of the book, fine press printing and the history of quantum theory.

Weaknesses: Some of the University of Houston records are unprocessed and are somewhat difficult to access at this time.

Additional Comments: