

March 30, 2024 | 10am - 6pm

Orange Show World HQ, 2334 Gulf Terminal Drive

Old, Weird HOUSTON:

A celebration of our city's hidden histories.

The Orange Show Center for Visionary Art presents a local alternative history fair and symposium that preserves, interprets, and shares the hidden histories of unusual and creative people, institutions, and events that have made our city one of the most diverse and livable in the country.

Archivists of the Houston Area (AHA!)

Archives Bazaar

Exhibitions of early art car activity

A daylong speaking program with presentations and panels featuring

William North; Valentin Diaconov;

Mike Vance; Phillip Pyle, II; Stephen Fox;

plus area students

The Hyde Park
Miniature Museum

food trucks and Houston-proud vendors

Keynote performance (5pm):
John Lomax III presents
The Lomax on Lomax Show

Four generations of Lomaxes have been finding, recording, promoting, and presenting unique American music for 140 years. In this one-man show, John Lomax III discusses his family's legacy in Houston and beyond and performs some of the most influential American roots-music songs that his relatives have collected and preserved.

YOU TOO CAN PRESENT AT OLD, WEIRD HOUSTON!

Register here or e-mail the curator : pete@orangeshow.org

Major funding for Old, Weird Houston is provided by Humanities Texas, the state affiliate of the National Endowment for the Humanities. Any views, findings, conclusions, or recommendations expressed in this program do not necessarily represent those of the National Endowment for the Humanities. Additional Funding is provided in part by the City of Houston through the Houston Arts Alliance, the Texas Commission on the Arts, the National Endowment for the Art, the Houston Endowment, The Brown Foundation, Inc., private contributions, and volunteer support.